PROCEEDINGS

THE COURT: Wells Fargo versus Joel Mabry and Rhonda Perryman-Mabry and others. There is an attorney present representing somebody, I guess, that's not Wells Fargo, so if you'll identify yourself, Mr. Osborne.

MR. Osborne: Yes, Your Honor. David Osborne for the Florida Default Law Group on behalf of the Wells Fargo Bank.

THE COURT: And present in the court are?

MR. BRADSHAW: Donald Bradshaw, Your Honor, present representing Joel Mabry and -- I forgot his wife's name, Rhonda Mabry.

THE COURT: Okay. We're here on your motion for summary judgment, Mr. Osborne. Did you receive a copy of the motion in opposition?

MR. Osborne: Your Honor, I received a copy about five minutes ago. I'm trying to read it. I haven't been able to read -- I've only got through the first two pages, because it was sent so late to my office.

THE COURT: I'll give you a few minutes, because I don't have another hearing till 1:15 -- I mean, 1:45, so I'm not going to give you a lot more minutes. I just received it myself.

MR. Osborne: Yes, Your Honor. Essentially,

it's -- I'm not going to challenge that -- the case law. I assume counsel has correctly has presented these holdings and law as accurate. I was able to very, very briefly skim through, but only just now more closely read this. It appears that our affidavits will be -- will need to be up dated, and so we will be rescheduling this hearing to conform with appellate case law in Florida.

THE COURT: Okay. I'm just making some notes here.

So are you canceling the hearing at this time? What do you --

MR Osborne: Yes, Your Honor. It appears that there are -- the plaintiff cannot -- it appears -- I'm sorry. Let me rephrase, Your Honor.

Because we have not attached the business records to these affidavits of the amounts due and owing, I believe that defense has raised at least a reasonable argument as to why this should not go forward.

Your Honor, I would like to address the motion to strike or I imagine that there will be a hearing for the motion to mediation. The plaintiff would like to go -- would like to speed up this process as soon as possible, so we can get a hearing on this quickly, or resolve these matters today, so that the plaintiff can proceed in this case to reschedule for a time as soon as possible from now. THE COURT: Okay. So based on your representations, the Court is going to deny the motion for summary judgment. And, Mr. Bradshaw, if you'll submit a proposed order. MR. BRADSHAW: Yes, Your Honor.
